January 31, 1976 - May 11, 2025

In Loving Memory of Misael Orozco

January 31, 1976 – May 8, 2025

With deep sorrow and broken hearts, yet unwavering faith, we announce the passing of our beloved Misael Orozco who was called home to Heaven on May 8th, 2025 at the age of 49. Though his departure was sudden, we rejoice in knowing that he is now resting peacefully in the presence of his Savior.

Misael was born in Los Angeles, California, to Paublo Orozco and Evelia Chávez. He was raised in Buena, Washington, and attended local schools in Toppenish before earning his GED. Misael worked in agriculture along side his family, and later at the family business Pablito's Pizza. He later opened his own business, becoming widely known in the community as "Your Tint Man" for his car tinting work.

Misael had a big heart and a gentle spirit. He was compassionate, kind, and always willing to lend a hand to anyone in need. Above all, he deeply loved his three sons—Andres, Emanuel, and David. He is survived by his parents, Paublo and Evelia; his children; and his siblings: Jesse Orozco, Danelia (José Luis Arellano), Victor (Kim Pepper); and was preceded in death by his brother, Audel.

Misael's absence leaves an immeasurable void in our lives. We may never fully understand why he had to leave us so soon, but we find comfort in God's promise of eternal life. Misael is no longer in pain, no longer burdened — he is whole, he is free, and he is home.

Though we grieve the loss of Misael and miss him more than words can say, we rejoice in the truth that he is now at peace in Heaven. His love and kindness will stay with us always, and we'll carry his memory in our hearts until we see him again.

Details on the Christian Mass will be shared soon.
