

Nohemi Botello Sanchez

December 17, 1935 - December 20, 2024

Nohemi Botello Sanchez, age 89, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family, in Toppenish, Washington. She was born on December 17, 1935, in El Moral, Coahuila, Mexico, to Jesus Botello and Manuela (Mica) Flores.

Her surviving siblings are Antonio (Felicja) Botello of Toppenish, Manuel (Maria) Botello of Yakima, Alfonso (Cuca) Botello of Yakima, Maria Velasquez of Castroville, TX and her sister in law, Rosie Botello of Toppenish. She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings Jesus Botello, Elias (Leo) Flores Botello, Elma Cervantes, and Mercedes Garibay.

Nohemi married Lazaro "Larry" "Chalo" Sanchez in Eagle Pass, Texas. She is survived by her three children: Jose Juan (Anastasia) Sanchez, Hilda (Jose) Solano, and Mirta (Pedro) Contreras. She was preceded in death by her son Lazaro (Margie) Sanchez III.

Sixty years ago, Nohemi and her husband purchased their first and only home in Toppenish, a place she lovingly referred to as her little paradise on earth. She cherished tending to her roses and plants, cooking abundant meals to share with everyone, and, until just a few years ago, washing the windows of her beloved home.

Nohemi was a devoted Catholic and a faithful member of St. Aloysius Church. Her unwavering faith was evident in her daily prayers and her morning blessings for her grandchildren as they left for school.

Over the years, Nohemi extended her generosity by hosting her godson Alberto Garza and her brother-in-law Frank Sanchez during their migratory years. She was also an in-home childcare provider, lovingly raising and caring for hundreds of children in the lower Yakima Valley.

She was deeply devoted to her grandchildren: Jay, Daniel, and Anne Marie Sanchez; Laura and Jose Jr. Solano; Crystal and Michael Sanchez; and Pedro and Micaella Contreras. Attending their school and college graduations was a source of great pride for her. Her great-grandchildren—Jayden, Natalia, and Jason Sanchez; Alejandro Sanchez, Nailea Madrigal; Isaiah Sanchez; and Anthony and Domani Sanchez—brought her immense joy. She shared a special bond with her great-great-grandson Julian Sanchez, affectionately calling him “el high 5.”

Please join us in celebrating Nohemi’s life. A Rosary will be held on Sunday, December 29, at 3:00 PM at Heggie’s Colonial Home. A Catholic Mass will follow on Monday, December 30, at 10:00 AM at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. Nohemi’s final resting place will be at the Toppenish Cemetery, where she begins her journey to reunite with her loved ones.
