

Pamela K Fabela

January 15, 1952 - October 2, 2023

Pamela was the embodiment of tenderness and love. She carried herself with gentle dignity.

She loved with her whole heart, openly sharing herself and her friendship. Her kindness was extended to everyone regardless of age or status. Her graceful smile was medicine.

She lived every moment intentionally putting the best of herself in all that she did.

She made it her life's work to bear witness across time and to create a legacy of presence for those yet unborn.

She lives on through each of you when you show up, show kindness and show love.

“ Pam was the greatest. She treated my little family so nice. She was always smiling, and always had positive comments to make. I will miss seeing her around, and I will always think of her often. She is that bright shining star that you will look up and see. Rest in peace Pam! All the kids loved you. Heaven gained a wonderful soul!

“ It is so hard to believe the news that Pam has passed. What a beautiful person she was. She was calm and peaceful, happy and content. In all the years we have known her I have never heard her say a cross word. She will be missed by all she touched. My deepest condolences for Val and family. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Whenever we met, we talked for HOURS. Pam was beautiful and interesting. We were always shocked by how much time had passed when we spoke. We met through a committee wit Toppenish School District. Her loss is tremendous, and her legacy is even greater. May Hod comfort her family.
