

Pat Thompson

June 30, 1969 - March 1, 2010

Patricia A. "Pat" Thompson (40) of Granger died on Monday in Toppenish. She was born in Portland, OR on June 30, 1969 to Moses and Darlene (Samuels) Thompson. She was raised and educated in Granger graduating in 1987. She earned her AA degree from YVCC, Bachelors Degree from WSU and her masters in social work from EWU. Pat worked for the Yakama Nation as a social worker, counselor for Higher Education and most recently for DSHS division of CPS as a case worker. She was an avid mariner's fan, especially Ichiro, collected Barbies, and enjoyed Marilyn Monroe. She was a jingle dress dancer as a young lady. Pat was very proud of her ancestral heritage, being the great granddaughters of Chief's Tommy Thompson and Morris Antelope of the CDA Tribe, granddaughter of Chief Henry Thompson and was especially proud to be the daughter of hereditary Chief Moses Thompson. She is survived by her parents, Moses and Darlene Thompson of Granger; one brother, Michael Thompson of Granger; three sisters, Joyce Thompson of Granger, Diana (Doug Sr.) Thompson-Marconi of Toppenish and Raven Thompson of Granger; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Dressing services will be at 10AM at Colonial Funeral Home with overnight services at the Toppenish Longhouse. Funeral services will be at 7AM Thursday at the longhouse with interment to follow at Reservation Community Memorial Park west of Wapato. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Was just beginning to get acquainted with this sweet young lady, she was so nice, and had such a beautiful smile, that she shared with everyone! She was getting ready to begin a new walk in the political world, and she would have made such a big difference, now that is our loss. To the family and friends left behind, I send my prayers that you will be given strength and courage to move forward in a good strong way, the way she was. To our Sister Pat, have a good and safe journey, and know you will be missed, but don't look back... God Bless each of you today, tomorrow, and always. Prayers, Peace, and Love, Gina###imported-begin##Gina Jerry###imported-end##

“ Just a few words; My condolences to Patty and her entire family. We truly admire her for all the dedication and hard work and she will be missed. Patty help enhance many lives while working for the education department of the Yakama Nation. I appreciated her good heartedness; her diligence, resourcefulness and professionalism to help people like me achieve our goals of graduating from college. She helped provide opportunities, and promote education to our younger people and very proud of her heritage.##imported-begin##Patrick Luke##imported-end##

“ "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives: he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will open."
Matt:7:7-8 I had the pleasure to meet Patrica when she worked with DSHS what I really liked is that she was a huge fan as myself of the Mariners we had many talks on how we would change the team and make things better for the M's she will be miss. May God Bless You at Rest. My Prayers go out to your Family, Always.##imported-begin##Robert Ramirez##imported-end##
