

Pedro Diaz

April 27, 1951 - January 2, 2015

Pedro Diaz 63, went to be with the lord on January 2 2015 surrounded by his loving family

The son of Emiliano and Edelmira Diaz, Pedro was born on April 27, 1951 in the small town of Coalcolman, Michoacan. At a young age he started working in and Around the Town and also the family farm soon after he moved to the United States in search of a better life. He worked his way up the states and settled in Washington., he was a very dedicated and hard working man he worked for over 25 years in all types of agriculture jobs.

He was very passionate about his yearly tomato and chile garden, he made sure it was watered and well taken care of. He loved to dance, watch novelas, collect cans, do household chores and sing his own composed songs. Spoiling all the kids with candy and toys was always a must.

He had a passion for his family. He may not of had kids but we all looked up to him as a father and grandfather figure.

He was preceded in death by his parents, nephews Ernesto Rodriguez (1991), Vicente Diaz (2005), Israel Diaz(2013).

He is survived by his siblings Teresa Diaz, Vicente Diaz, Rafael Diaz, Rosa

Bejar, Socorro Chavez, Luisa Diaz, Ruben Diaz and Blanca Rodriguez.

“ *Not a day goes by that I don't think of u, everyday I ask myself What if? Should Of,
Could Of , Would Of! I miss everything about
u. I love u forever. 💋🥹 Forever in my heart!*
