“ There are amongst us many, myself included, that can be place in cubby holes or under a given category. You meet us every day as you walk thru life. Then on that rare occasion you meet someone like Pete. You must place him, out of respect for his uniqueness, and perhaps appreciation for the laughter, on a list by himself. I feel the sadness and yet those who knew him cannot think long into his memory without smiling.

A celebration of his life should include a “Thanks Pete” from me. Thanks for all the wonderful times filled with the wonder of what words of humor he would utter next. If there is ever a thought of Pete it must surely be followed with the most pleasant of memories. Again I can only say “Thanks Pete”.
