

Preston Ahto-Watlamett

October 24, 1987 - July 21, 2009

Preston H. Ahto-Watlamett "P-Dawg" (21) of White Swan died in White Swan on Tuesday July 21, 2009. He was born in Yakima on October 24, 1987 to Russell L. Watlamett and Laurie A. Ahto. He was raised and educated in White Swan and enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing basketball, participated in ultimate fighting and really enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He was a practical joker that was always making others laugh. He is survived by his parents, Russell Watlamett Jr. and Laurie Ahto both of White Swan; his significant other, Alma Jo Fiander of White Swan; two children, Mason and Darlene Watlamett also of White Swan; six brothers, Tyrone, Elias, Justin, Conrad and Russell Watlamett and Blaine Wheeler; five sisters, Shiena Watlamett, Ray Ann and iola Sanchey, Darlene Watlamett and Stacy McKay; and numerous nieces and nephews. Preston is preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents, both sets of great-grandparents and one sister, Ashley Rose Watlamet. Dressing services will be on Wednesday July 22, 2009 at 10AM at Colonial Funeral Home. Overnight services will be at the Independent Shaker Church in White Swan. Funeral services will be at sunrise on Thursday July 23, 2009 at the church with interment to follow at the Union Gap Cemetery. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ My Prayers & Thoughts are with each of you at this time, Alma Jo, Russell & Lori Ann. Your Mother Mona always spoke so fondly of her children & Grand kids. Over time we all went our different ways and lost touch with one another. During times like this we seem to all come home. Forgive me for I couldn't make it today. May Our Great Creator be your source of strength in the days ahead. Take care and know that Our Elder is in a better place with all his relations.##imported-begin##Mary A.
