

Redfern Newton Mardel

February 7, 1963 - June 3, 2024

Red's Obituary

Redfern "Red" Mardel passed away June 3, 2024. Red was born in Anaheim, California on February 7, 1963, to Ron and Joyce Mardel. He was a proud member of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation and is a descendant of Walla Walla Chief Jim Kanine. He graduated from Wapato High School, Class of 1981 and went on to play football at Central Washington University. He continued his love of sports playing with the legendary scalpers. He loved to play and watch sports, his favorite teams were the Mariners, Seahawks, and the Lakers. He grew up as an avid Star Wars fan and passed this interest on to his family, he would eventually have a granddaughter named Leia. He never missed Pendleton Round-Up, Let'er Buck! He loved to spend quality time with his children and draw with his granddaughter Leia. Red married Bernadine on March 12th, 1997, in South Lake Tahoe, Nevada. He worked for Tiin-Ma logging for 29 years as a Heavy Equipment Operator. Red is survived by his loving family - mother Joyce, and wife Bernadine, children Latonia, Garrick (Tanara), Jacob (Lakoma), and Jocelyn; granddaughter Princess Leia; siblings Rosebud Sr. (Bernie), Radcliff (Theresa); nieces and nephews Rondelle, J.D.- Disney, Dayton, Rosebud Jr., Alix -Kylo, Raveign, Christian, Nathaniel - Zeria, Michael - Allister, Chase, and Makayla. Redfern is preceded by his dad Ron Mardel, grandparents Anthony and Lillian Hoptowit, and "bro" Jeff Strom. Services will take place at 11:00 am on Thursday, June 6th, at Heggie's Colonial Funeral Home in Toppenish, burial at Abraham Cemetery in White Swan, and dinner to follow at the White Swan Community Center.

“ Red was an awesome cousin.
Red's personality was so kind, generous and he was great person to be around!
We will miss Red, but especially during the Pendleton Round-up! Red, Bernie & family always made the R-up a Happier Place to be!
We will miss you Red! Let 'er Buck!
