

Rhoda McAnulty

March 22, 1918 - May 7, 2008

Rhoda K. McAnulty, 3-22-1918 to 5-7-2008. Born Rhoda K. Lytle in Montrose, CO to Bernice and Ed Lytle. Rhoda outlived four husbands: Cliff Meyers, Paul Goodrich, Ed Herrala and Keith McAnulty. One son, Ronald Goodrich, and one grandson, Edward Kromer, preceded her in passing. She leaves four children: Catherine Manness, Bill Goodrich (Sharron), Louise Rendler (Francis), Carol Coultard (Francis) and four stepchildren. She also leaves ten grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren and thirteen great great grandchildren. Rhoda spent sixty-nine years in the Alderwood Manor and Lynnwood, WA area and the last four years in Yakima, WA. Rhoda enjoyed being involved in the Cedar Valley Grange and the Lynnwood Eagles. She attended the Alderwood Community Church for seven years. She recently celebrated her 90th birthday with family and friends gathering from all over. The family has really appreciated the care and help given to her by the Garden Village staff in Yakima, WA. There will be a memorial service and sharing at the New Hope Chapel, 2009 Cornell Ave., Union Gap, WA at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday, May 10th. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Rhoda McAnulty

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM