October 21, 1944 - April 3, 2024

Obituary for Rosalio (Charlie) Sifuentes

On April 3rd, 2024, we lost our beloved dad, Rosalio (Charlie) Sifuentes. He passed away at the age of 79, surrounded by those who loved him.

Dad was born in Eagle Pass, Texas on October 21, 1944, to Leocadio Sifuentes and Josefina (Gutierrez) Sifuentes. He was one of 10 siblings. In 1968 he met Mary (Rocha) Sifuentes, and they wed on June 21st, 1969. They went on to have 3 children, Linda, Michael, and Theresa.

He was a great man, amazing husband, and wonderful father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. He was a hard worker and could always be found building or fixing something. He cared for his family deeply and he meant the world to us.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Mary, his three children - Linda Garcia, Michael Sifuentes (Ana), and Theresa Sifuentes (Jerry), his grandchildren – Ariana, Julisa, Haydan, Jameson, Thaliah, and great-grandchildren – Adeline and Josiah. He is also survived by several siblings, numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, April 9, 2024, from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., with the Rosary beginning at 3:00 p.m. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, April 10, 2024, 10:00 a.m. at St. Aloysius Catholic church. Burial to follow at Elmwood Cemetery in Toppenish.
