

Rosie S. Ramirez

August 30, 1949 - May 31, 2018

Rosie Savala Ramirez, age 68 born to Lorraine Smith Savala and Manuel Savala on August 30, 1949 home town Toppenish Washington, died in Yakima Washington on May 31, 2018. Where she resided for 25 years, Rosie married Geronimo Rios Ramirez in 1970 had their first child Manuel Ramirez, Christopher Ramirez, Henry Ramirez, Virginia Ramirez (deceased) Andrea Ramirez, Patricia Ramirez, and Veronica Ramirez. Rosie Ramirez was a hard worker she had worked in agriculture with her husband for years then she became a home maker and put a lot of work helping her children and caring for them. Later she separated and met Manuel Reece in 1985. They then had their babies; Angelica Ruiz, Linda Ruiz, Jessica and Ralphy. Rosie never gave up on her children, she cared for them and always gave her love to anyone that needed it. She had 34 Grandchildren who she loved and gave them each their own nicknames. She took care of a lot of her grandchildren and loved them like her own, they will all miss her. She was and will always be known as a beautiful mother, grandmother, and friend to all who knew her. She was a fighter who never gave up. She fought through all the pain she was caring, giving, kind hearted, beautiful loving human being that we will all truly miss. We will all miss you and remember the memories you have given all of us. Rest in peace our beautiful Angel.
