

Shelby Kay Dorr

July 19, 2010 - March 27, 2023

Shelby Kay Dorr went home to be with Our Lord and Savior on Monday, March 27, 2023.

Shelby was born on July 19, 2010, to Shawn and Ashley Dorr of Selah. Shelby enjoyed spending time with family and friends playing games, camping, going for drives or just hanging out. Shelby was involved in drama, choir, and creative writing.

Shelby attended Selah Middle School where she was in the 7th grade. And had numerous friends.

Shelby's hobbies included golfing with dad, shopping at Target and Hot Topic with her mom and sister, playing Minecraft with her sister and brother, and her 80's rock classics and Sir Mix-a-lot.

Shelby was also known as the baby whisperer; she would always make a crying baby smile.

Shelby is survived by her parents Shawn and Ashley Dorr, sister Rylee (RyRy) and Mason (MJ), John Bauer Jr. (Grandpa) of Yakima, Darla Dorr (Grandma), and Craig Sveen, Keith and Jeanne Morris (Great Grandparents) all of Naches, and special friend Liam Owens of Selah, and numerous uncles, aunts, and cousins.

Shelby is preceded in death by her grandpa John Dorr (Poppi), grandma Carol Bauer (Nana), great aunt Lynda Bauer, great uncle Rodger Lamb, and her great-great-grandma Ola McKinney.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking for donations to Children's Shriners of Spokane or Seattle Children's.

"Fly high sweet angel. I'll love you forever my baby you'll be."

“ hey shelby. I remember when we would always get in trouble in math because we would laugh and talk to whole time. I miss you so much, I wish you were here making me laugh. Every time I saw you i would be so happy. I remember the day you died i was wondering where you were at school. I remember freezing in class when i found out and broke down. that was the first time i cried so hard i couldn't breathe. know it's been a year but i have never forgotten the day we met. It was in math and i was having a hard time in math and i didn't know what to do. So i asked the teacher and he told me to ask my table mates. I never knew i would be so excited to go to math. I'm sorry for everyone who made fun of your death. I love you so much. Thank you for making me excited to go into math. and i'm sorry for who i've became.

“ I remember our last sleepover together like it was just yesterday. We had both convinced our parents to let us have a sleepover together and we were over the moon when the answer was yes. Once we got to my house we watched TV and ate some noodles together then we ran off to bed and giggled all night. When we woke up we were exhausted but we got dressed and ran to my bus as quickly as possible. We talked and laughed on the bus then when we got to school we had our fun days like usual. I'm very glad and thankful that they took time out of their schedule just to have a sleepover with me. That was the last sleepover we had together and I'm so glad that we made memories and had fun. may Shelby rest in our lord and saviors arms.

“ Shelby! The back church pew will never be the same without you. I have always loved your spunkiness, your style, and your smile. My last memory of you was getting you to smile before church started. Thank you for you keeping us all on our toes. Love you forever and a day Great great Auntie KT.

“ Shelby Kay Dorr was a delightful member of the Dorr Family. I met her in the baby stage of her life... actually got to hold and cuddle her during my daughter's wedding shower. She was so active, busy, and fun that day.

Then, later, on each Thanksgiving , Shelby (with her family) would arrive at my daughter's house for the holiday meal. It was fun for Richard and I see to each of the Dorr children... how fast they grew!!!

Two years ago, Shelby took it upon herself to decorate a platter of deviled eggs for the festivities. My goodness, we saw the reddest topping of paprika applied to the eggs. Was this Christmas? No.... just Thanksgiving! The eggs weren't the only object of decoration. The platter, too, had a very serious line of heavy paprika on it! But, I must say, most of this offering was devoured, and many giggles on the eggs appearance were shared throughout the day. Thank you, Shelby.

My husband and I are going to miss you.

Love and prayers,

Richard and Karen Lommers
