

Tamara Thrasher

August 21, 1969 - September 7, 2016

Tamara Ann Oursland-Thrasher, born in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho on August 21st, 1969 age 47, passed away in her home on Sept. 7th, 2016.

She is survived by her husband Marion Thrasher, her sister Brandie Simons, brother Marcus Hastings, brother-in-law Jack Thrasher, mother-in-law Martina Thrasher, nieces, nephews, and also many great nieces & nephews. She was preceded in death by her father Edward Oursland, mother Patsy Oursland and sister Lucia Oursland.

Tamara graduated Yakima Valley College with Associate Degrees in Legal & Medical. She worked as an office manager/X-Ray technician for 13 years. She was friends with Dr. Bob & Bill W. She had a passion for writing poetry. She loved working out and especially shopping!! She loved spending time with family. She loved her little fur babies Huggy Bear, Precious, Wooky & Nibbler with her whole heart. Tamara was married to Marion Thrasher on April 15th, 2000. They were very happy together and he remains the love of her life.

Tamara was a kind and genuine person with a prosperity to love and love big! She would do anything she possibly could for anyone who needed help or TLC. She was always there for her family & friends and she will be very dearly missed.

Tamara fought fiercely against her battle with cancer which ultimately took her too soon from us. Therefore the family is devastated and completely unprepared to incur these costs. The family gracefully & respectfully asks for any monetary donations possible from family & friends to help defray the costs of the services. Anything would be deeply appreciated. Please make donations to Heggies Colonial Funeral Home, Toppenish, Wa., 509-865-3222. Thank you in advance, Oursland/Thrasher family. RIP Tamara, we wish you blessings on this side & the other side. God bless, John 3:16.
