

Tasha Renee Stanley

July 28, 1982 - August 12, 2021

Tasha Renee Stanley, age 39, died unexpectedly in her home in Yakima on August 12th 2021. Tasha was born July 28, 1982 in Toppenish WA. She was a proud Wildcat and graduated from Toppenish High School, class of 2000. Growing up Tasha was outgoing, fun, loving, kind and had a zest for life. She touched so many people's lives with her love, joy and laughter. There was never a dull moment when Tasha was around! Some of Tasha's greatest friendships and lifelong bonds were made during her years as a Wildcat. She was a wrestling cheerleader, sang in choir, participated in Upward Bound and traveled to Europe for the senior trip.

Tasha also loved fashion. She was a fashionista to the core! She was always dressed ahead of the latest trends, having her hair, makeup and nails on point.

Although she loved fashion, nothing compared to the love she had for her son Cash. Cash was born in February of 2011 and since then her life revolved around raising him. She was a loving, devoted and caring mother. The bond she shared with Cash is irreplaceable. He was her everything, her entire world.

Tasha is survived by her son Cash, her longtime companion and love of her life Dion Curtis, her mother Lynette and stepfather Ron Wilson, her father Lawrence Stanley, her sister Deanna Ferguson-Williams and her husband Justin, her nieces, Jasel, Imani, Naomi and Ruby, her grandmother Lena Stanley of Daytona Beach FL, her aunt, Dr. Sandra Young of Columbia SC and uncle Paul L Archer of Pensacola FL.

She's preceded in death by her grandparents Paul and Ruby Archer.

Tasha has touched the lives of so many people and she will be greatly missed by all.
