

Verdine Colwash

June 7, 1945 - February 5, 2014

Verdine Colwash (68) of Wapato died at her home on Wednesday February 5, 2014. She was born in the Satus area on June 7, 1945 to Thompson and Sarah (Quaempts) Colwash. She was an enrolled member of the Yakama Nation and was a homemaker. She is survived by seven sisters, Melanie Colwash of Pendleton, Jovita Colwash of Wapato, Sylvia Hudson of White Swan, Donna Andy of Union Gap, Doris Brown of Yakima, Suzanne Brown and Regina McConville both of Wapato; three brothers, Tony Colwash and Ralph Brown both of Wapato and Max Brown of Satus. Overnight services were at the Toppenish Longhouse on Thursday evening February 6, 2014 with a procession leaving the longhouse at 7AM Friday for a graveside service at the Blackwolf Cemetery in rural Klickitat County at 9AM. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Cemetery Details

Blackwolf Cemetery

Rock Creek, WA

Tribute Wall

“ Verdine Colwash

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM