“ Vivian was my Aunt by marriage and I can remember her always caring and helping others. Her and I would go shopping together and have the best of times. Though her nephew and I divorced, Vivian and I kept in touch. I am going to miss her very much.

“ I went to school with Vivian in good ole Farmers Branch, Texas. My favorite memory was Rawhide creek, getting muddy, sliding down the spillway, sneaking out at night and high school parties. She could make you laugh when you didn't think you could or should. A few years ago, I was visiting my husband's family in Washington and she and I got to spend some time together while we were there, she got on the motorcycle and we met at Lake Chalian, Wa. Actually she is the one that "made" me get on a mother cycle for the first time, and that was also the time, I got my first motorcycle burn! Try to hide that from your parents. She was tough, funny and had a heart as big as TEXAS.

My last convo with VIVIAN was "I would see her in March". Guess God had other plans for her. I have to thank Facebook for the reconnect in many people's lives! She will be missed.

“ Share a memory, only one. I'm trying to keep it clean, but I cannot For a small women she had a heart as big as Texas. And a hell of a sense of humor and laughter that was contagious.

A long time ago I was nervous getting ready for a date. To get me to relax Vivian was going to teach me how to let's just say how to keep the date interesting and the juices flowing. We had bbq the night before. Ribs. And she decided to show me how to eat a spare rib. And keep my date on edge in a good way. And paying attention. Let's just say the date was a success and I was on the floor laughing and was no longer nervous. I love her. she will be missed
