

Wallace "Ky" G. Shelton

April 7, 1945 - March 5, 2017

Wallace "Ky" G. Shelton, 71, a longtime resident of Granger passed away at Cottage In The Meadow on Sunday, March 5, 2017 surrounded by his loving family. Ky was born to Albert and Shirley Shelton on April 7, 1945 in Toppenish. Wallace was raised and educated in Granger.

After graduating from Granger High School, he joined the U.S. Army and served during the Vietnam War. Wallace also continued his education and received his A. A. degree before pursuing his career in sheet metal fabrication. Ky worked in fabrication throughout the west and he also worked at Hanford before retiring.

When not spending time with his family, Wallace enjoyed during his free time restoring and showing antique Jaguar cars and traveling south for the winter to Arizona.

Wallace is survived by his companion Charlene Johansen of Granger; his daughter, Stephanie Shelton of Sunnyside; his step-children, Tonya Mireles of Wyoming, Shannon Alexander of Arizona, and Paul Johansen of Granger; his brothers, Ken Nalsh of Spokane and Doug Shelton of Grandview; and his sisters, Margaret Shelton of Sunnyside, Sara Jo Renfroe and Althea Goeken both of Toppenish.

Wallace was preceded in death by both his parents Albert and Shirley Shelton; and his niece Josie.

A Memorial Service will be held later this spring. Colonial Funeral Home is entrusted with the arrangements.

“ Dear Char,

Very sad to be sending this to you and your family. My thoughts are with you at this time. Ky loved his classic cars. May he rest in peace now.
