

Wallace S. "Steve" Smartlowit

September 8, 1956 - September 11, 2014

Wallace S. "Steve" Smartlowit (58) of Wapato died on Thursday September 11, 2014 in Toppenish. He was born on September 8, 1956 to Wallace and Mitzie (Charley) Smartlowit. Steve was raised and educated in Harrah and White Swan. He worked as a commercial fisherman and an artist. Steve enjoyed the Seattle Seahawks and Mariners along with fishing, hunting, horse races the casino's and will be remembered for his "green thumb" and taking care of his vehicles. He is survived by two children, Eric and Melina Smartlowit; Smartlowit family elder, Levina Wilkins of Harrah; a brother, Rodney Smartlowit of Wapato; two sisters, Venita Nagle and Kim Smartlowit. Dressing services were on Friday September 12, 2014 at 3PM at Colonial Funeral Home. Prayer services were at 4:30PM Friday at All Tribes Christian Church in Wapato with the funeral procession leaving at 7AM Saturday (today) for the Saluskin Cemetery near Wiley City. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Wallace S. "Steve" Smartlowit

---

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM