“ Pray that your journey was a good one and that those waiting for you on the other side with open arms to give you the love, guidance, and comfort that you needed. You left behind a good legacy for your young life, be proud of that, all your hard work. We will miss you and your Tom Selleck grin, the kind words, and the ideas we shared back and forth. Praying for your children and grandchildren. Rest now, and pray for us that have been left behind. Peace....
