

Willard Cloud

January 23, 1938 - October 17, 2009

Willard Cloud (71) of Wishram died in Toppenish on Saturday October 17, 2009. He was born on Major Creek outside of Lyle on January 23, 1938 to George Cloud and Mary Stahi. He graduated from Lyle High School and worked his whole life as a traditional fisherman and hunter, which were his greatest passions. Willard was a member of the Yakama Nation. He is survived by six daughters, Jacquelyn Cloud of Toppenish, Willa Cloud of Lyle, Martha Cloud of Toppenish, Brenda Cloud of Warm Springs, OR, Muriel Cloud of Stevenson and Alexandra Grace Rose of Wishram; four sons, Arthur and Walter Cloud both of Wishram and Willard Cloud Jr. of White Swan, and Eugene Cloud of Toppenish; 21 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren; one brother, Mike Cloud of The Dalles, OR; three sisters, Sylvia Martinez of Wapato, Sylola Leslie of Wishram and Sharon Cloud of Goldendale. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lavina Logie Cloud; one grandson, Arlen G. Cloud, and one daughter, Leila A. Cloud. Dressing services will be held at Colonial Funeral Home on Monday October 19, 2009 at 11AM. The family will transport him to the Lyle Longhouse for overnight services with the funeral service at sunrise Tuesday October 20, 2009 with interment at the Wish-xum Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Willard Cloud

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ I was glad to have meet him and talked to him. I will keep a prayer for the loved ones he left behind. Eugene... you will always be in my prayers okay? Im sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Matthew Seth "CHIP's" Yahyowan##imported-end##

October 21, 2009 at 06:05 AM