

William George Flett

November 30, 1966 - November 12, 2024

William Flett passed away peacefully on November 12, 2024, surrounded by his family.

He was born November 30, 1966, in Yakima, WA to Helen James and William Flett. He was raised in Wapato, WA and graduated from Wapato High School in 1986. He became employed with the Yakama Nation Fisheries in 1996 and worked until 2024. He married Sharon Walker on July 29, 2005, in Long Beach, WA.

He is survived by his wife, Sharon of White Swan, WA; mother-in-law, Linda Walker, sister-in-law; Kellie Walker; brother-in-law, Doc Walker; niece, Jessie Walker; goddaughter, Roxie; nieces and nephews Misty, Devalyn, Yuli, Chico, Zed, Ryden, Ayden, and Remington; son, William Flett and wife Tiana; grandchildren, Zariah and Waylon; sister, Linda Hert; nephew, Craig Hert; and brother Frank Flett and wife Michelle.

He is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Georgia who raised him; and brother-in-law, Larry.

William made friends everywhere he went. So many people have said he was so fun and funny and always had a smile. They would say they cannot remember a time with him without having fun. It has been said they cannot remember being around him and they did not smile. He was the nicest guy I have ever met.
