“ Sorry to hear of the passing of my very good friend Willie. We were always doing things together back in our high school days. Willie was very gifted baseball player and also a Jockey, he and Orville Phillips moved to California to race horses, think they did this for a couple of racing seasons and then returned back to the valley. In December of 1955 Willie, Vic Ganuelas and I joined the U.S. Marine Corps, however, due to an insufficient number of new recruits to form a platoon we had to wait until January 12, 1956 before entering “Boot Camp”. Upon completion of infantry training at Camp Pendleton we were all assigned different duty stations. I never seen Willie again until we were discharged in 1959. Going to miss him, have a lot of good memories. Rest In Peace Willie. “Semper Fi”
