

Wilson LaRoque

February 19, 1953 - April 30, 2010

Wilson T. LaRoque (57) of Toppenish died on Friday as a result of a fishing accident on the Columbia River. He was born in Toppenish on February 19, 1953 to Tommy and Velma LeRock. He was raised and educated in the Granger School District and worked for Wapato Irrigation District and mostly was a woodcutter and a commercial fisherman. He thoroughly enjoyed fishing. He is survived by his significant other, Diretha K. Jim of Toppenish; one granddaughter, Danyce LaRoque of Wapato; four grandchildren; one brother, Thomas Sam of Wapato and two sisters, Nina and Eliza Thompson and numerous nieces and nephews. Dressing services will be held on Monday May 3, 2010 at 2PM at the Toppenish Longhouse. Overnight services will be held at that location and he will be buried at sunrise on Wednesday at the Satus Point Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
