“ If only there was words to ease your pain and comfort your hearts and help during these difficult times as you grieve in the loss of an amazing young man, but only love, and the support of family and friends, and Gods comfort will help till the beautiful memories and your love of Wyatt, and his of you can bring you happiness as you start remembering the great young man that shared your love and life and the joy that Wyatt brought to you and everyone else. He was special in every way and was fun watching him grow up and reminding
Us of watching him become so like you Bill, in lots of ways., Missed seeing him in the band concerts with Taylor, but enjoyed when he was there.
Grief is an extension of how much we loved. Take time to grieve, the healing will come when you find yourself smiling at something that reminds you of Wyatt.
Our love and prayers ,

“ Our conversations with Wyatt were typically brief but always a pleasure. His honesty was refreshing, our conversations always ended on a positive and included a smile. Wyatt was becoming a man using the quality skills he learned from his parents, yet maintaining his individuality.
May God give your family the strength to endure the pain of your loss and focus on the great times you shared.
